19. Financial risk managementFinancial instrument – Fair values and risk management*Fair value measurement

The Company classifies fair value measurement within a hierarchy which gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities (Level 1) and lowest prices to unobservable inputs (Level 3). The levels of the fair value hierarchy are

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active market for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date

Level 2: Inputs other than quoted prices included within level1 that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly.

Level 3: Inputs are observable for the assets or liabilities.

The determination of what constitutes 'observable' requires significant judgement by the Company. The Company considers observable data to be that market data that is readily available, regularly distributed or updated, reliable and verifiable, not proprietary and provided by independent sources that are actively involved in the relevant market.

Unobservable inputs are used to measure fair value to the extent that relevant observable inputs are not available, thereby allowing for situations in which there is little, if any, market activity for asset or liability at measurement date. However, the fair value measurement objective remains the same. Therefore, unobservable inputs reflect the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the assets or liability, including assumptions about risk.

The following table provides an analysis of financial instruments measured at fair value at the period end date by the level in the fair value hierarchy into which the fair value measurement is categorized.
