NOTES FORMING PART OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE HALF-YEAR ENDED JUNE 30, 2020

1 ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The following are the significant accounting policies adopted by the company in the preparation of the financial statements.

Basis of Accounting

a) Cost Convention

The significant accounting policies adopted by the company and which have been followed in the the preparation of the financial statements are the historic cost convention.

b) Revenue Recognition

Turnover is recognized upon delivery of goods or service and customer acceptance. Turnover is shown net of value added tax.

c) Accounts Receivable

Trade and sundry debtors are shown at book value less provision for specific doubtful debts.

d) Depreciation

Property, plant and equipment is stated at historical cost less depreciation. Additions during the year are included at cost.

Depreciation is calculated on the straight -line method and on a pro-rated basis to write-off the cost of each asset, or the revenue amount, to its residual value over its estimated useful life.

Computers	20%
Furniture & Fixtures	20%
Equipment	30%
	15%

e) Foreign Currencies

Transactions in foreign currencies during the year are converted into cedis at prevailing rates of exchange ruling at the transaction date. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into cedis at the rates of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date. The resulting gains and losses are dealt with in the profit and loss account.

f) Cash and Cash Equivalent

Cash and cash equivalents are carried in the balance sheet at cost. For the purposes of the cash flow statement, cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand, deposits held at call with banks, other short-term highly liquid investments and bank overdrafts.

g) Post Balance Sheet Events

Events subsequent to the balance sheet date are reflected only to the extent that they relate to the accounts and their effect is material.

h) Judgements and Estimates

In preparing these financial statements judgements, estimates and associated assumptions have been based on historical experience and various other factors that were believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. These estimates and assumptions are reviewed on an on-going basis.
