COMMENTARY

SIFT's assets under management (AuM) as at June 2017 were GHS41million. This represents an 88% growth in assets for the first six (6) months to June and 140% growth over prior year. Net cash flows made up 87% of the half year's growth. A significant portion of the new cash flows were invested in Government of Ghana long- dated papers. The Fund's allocation to corporate bonds was consequently diluted to 19% of AuM. As at the end of June, 57%, 29%, 7% and 8% of the fund assets were in bonds, money market, treasury bills, cash and near cash investments respectively. Overall, the Fund's YTD return as at June 2017 was 11.1% compared to the 9.4% benchmark performance.

INVESTMENT POLICY AND OBJECTIVES

The STANLIB Income Fund Trust ("SIFT" or "the Fund") is an open-ended unit trust fund. The primary objective of the Fund is to maximize short-term income as well as long-term sustainable income and capital appreciation of its assets, through investing in a portfolio of fixed income securities including government treasury bills and notes, fixed deposits and other corporate debt securities.

Up to 70% of assets under management are invested in medium to long-term corporate and government debt securities while retaining a maximum of 40% in money market securities and a minimum of 5% in cash.

DISTRIBUTION

SIFT does not distribute earnings. All earnings are reinvested in the Fund which impacts on the net asset value of the Fund. Investors seeking to withdraw earnings will have to sell part of their units to realize their earnings.
