Ecobank Group reports unaudited 1H'22 profit before tax increase of 24% to $261m. Net revenues up 10% to $910m Record ROTE of 19.5% TBVPS of 5.09 US cents and Diluted EPS of 0.53 US cents.

Our results for the first six months of 2022 reflect not only the benefits of the firm's diversification but also our resilience and capabilities to continue serving our clients and customers in a challenging environment and still generate adequate returns responsibly for our shareholders. As a result, we delivered a return on tangible equity of 19.5%, a record, and increased earnings per share for shareholders by 24% year-on-year. In addition, profit before tax increased by 24% to $261 million and by 53% if you adjust the increase for the significant depreciation of some of our critical African currencies to the US dollar, says Ade Ayeyemi, CEO, Ecobank Group.

Ayeyemi continued: "We performed well because of our investments, including in technology, and Ecobankers' continued dedication to meet customers' financial needs, despite a challenging operating environment of high inflation, weakening African currencies, worsening government fiscal balances and lowering economic growth. In our Consumer Banking business, pre-tax profits increased 43% on higher deposit margins, loans, and debit card spending. In Corporate and Investment Banking, profits rose 33%, as we gained share in the letters of credit market, payment volumes increased by 43% on Omniplus, and FX volumes grew by 25% as client activity rebounded from the pandemic. In addition, an increase in SME activity and growth in the payment business lifted profits in Commercial Banking by 15%."

"Our investments in technology and digital capabilities have contributed to a reduction in our cost-to-serve. Along with revenue growth, the outcome is our record cost-to-income ratio of 56%. In addition, we increased impairment charges to reflect heightened credit risks. More importantly, we have proactively built central impairment reserves of $206 million, which we can deploy in a stressed credit environment. At the same time, our balance sheet remains liquid and adequately capitalised, providing us the capacity to serve our customers better."

"Our service to our customers and communities, anchored on our vision to advance Africa's economic development and financial integration, is widely recognised. Recently, Euromoney adjudged Ecobank for 2022 – Africa's Best Bank, Africa's Best Digital Bank and Africa's Best Bank for SMEs. These accolades are a testament to our passion for serving clients and customers and our continued investments in technology, processes, and people. I am extremely proud of my colleague Ecobankers and thank them for their diligence. As always, we are passionately working towards realising our vision and remaining the bank that Africa and friends of Africa trust." Ayeyemi concluded.

Period ended 30 June 2022 vs. Period ended 30 June 2021

Profit before tax (PBT) was $261 million, increasing by 24% or $51 million from the prior-year period. If adjusted for the impact of foreign currency translation (or at constant currency), PBT increased by 53%, driven by positive operating leverage. In addition, PBT increased in each of our business lines with Corporate and Investment Banking (CIB), Consumer Banking (CSB) and Commercial Banking (CMB), growing their PBTs by 33%, 43%, and 15%, respectively, in the first half of 2022.

Net revenue (operating income) was $910 million, increasing by 10% or 23% at constant currency. The increase in revenue was primarily driven by a 13% growth in non-interest revenue and an 8% growth in net interest income. In addition, each of our businesses grew revenues, with CIB up 17%, CSB up 11%, and CMB up 10%, reflecting growing success in our revenue expansion goals stated in our 'Execution Momentum' strategy. Overall, revenues benefited from rising interest rates, higher spreads on buying and selling currencies for clients, increased card spending, and cash management-related fees.

Net interest income (NII) was $493 million, increasing by 8%, or 21% at constant currency. NII benefited from higher interest rates as several Central Banks increased their benchmark interest rates to curb inflationary pressures. As a result, net interest spread, the difference between the average rates we charge on our interest-earning assets and the average rates we pay on our interest-bearing liabilities, increased by 12 basis points. As a result, the net interest margin (NIM) expanded by seven basis points to 5.1%.

Non-interest revenue (NIR) was $417 million, increasing by 13%, or 26% at constant currency, reflecting strong client and customer activity. Net fees and commission income of $231 million rose 12%, driven by significantly higher spending on cards, cash management fees, and credit-related fees. Net trading income of $164 million increased by 24%, driven by solid client activity in the trading of currencies, partially offset by lower fixed-income trading income. As a result, the NIR ratio, which measures the share of NIR of total net revenue, improved to 45.8% versus 44.8% in the prior year.

Operating expenses were $509 million, increasing by 5% or 15% at constant currency. Employee-related expenditures increased by 5% to $222 million and other operating expenses rose 5% to $237 million, predominantly driven by higher inflation. Revenue expansion and stringent cost containment measures improved the cost-to-income ratio to a record 56.0% compared to 58.7% a year-ago. Also, the cost-to-assets ratio, which measures costs to average assets, was 3.7%, flat on the previous year.

Impairment charges on loans (provision for credit losses), net of loan recoveries and impairment releases was $92 million compared with $87 million a year ago. Gross impairment charges were $137 million, down 4% from a year ago, primarily reflecting the decrease in non-performing loans. Recovered loans and impairment charge releases were $45 million compared to $55 million in the prior period. In addition, we built our central macro-overlay provision reserves further by $42 million in the first half of the year to $206 million as a buffer against tightening market conditions. As a result, the cost-of-risk for the period was 1.81% compared with 1.80% a year ago.

Taxation - Income taxes were $76 million compared with $58 million in the prior-year period. The effective income tax rate (ETR) was 29.0% versus 27.4% in the prior-year period, primarily driven by higher profits in different tax jurisdictions.

Gross loans and advances to customers (EOP) were $10.1 billion as of 30 June 2022, down 2% year-to-date (YTD) but increased by 6% on a year-on-year (YoY) basis. End-of-period net loans (gross loans less accumulated credit impairment charges) fell by 2% YTD but were higher by 6% on a YoY basis. At constant currency, net loans grew by 17% YoY. The loan increase was mostly within our CMB business, especially in our SME line of business and trade loans within CIB, which grew by 17% to $2.2 billion, driven by commodities finance.

Deposits from customers (EOP) were $19.7 billion as of 30 June 2022, flat YTD but increased 3% or 16% at constant currency, YoY. Deposit growth at constant currency was primarily driven by robust client activity within cash management and payments primarily within CIB and CMB. Current and savings account (CASA) deposits constituted 82% of total customer deposits.

The Group's estimated Tier 1 CAR and Total CAR were 10.7% and 14.8% as of 31 March 2022, compared with 10.7% and 14.8% as of 31 December 2021.

Equity available (attributable) to ETI shareholders was $1.36 billion as of 30 June 2022, down 11% or $175 million YTD, driven mainly by profit attributable to shareholders ($130 million), offset by mark-to-market losses ($51 million), FX translation reserves ($213 million) and dividends related to 2021 ($40 million).

The decrease in NPLs YTD was primarily driven by the positive impact of loan recoveries and collections, write-offs, and upgrades into stage 2 loans, partially offset by new stage 3 loan formation. As a result, the NPL ratio for the period was 6.2%, unchanged from 31 December 2021. However, it has improved significantly compared to the 7.4% in the first half of 2021.

Francophone West Africa (UEMOA)

UEMOA delivered a profit before tax of $123 million for the first half of 2022, increasing by 42% from the prior-year period. Results were adversely impacted by the depreciation of the CFA franc against the US dollar by 8.3%. However, excluding the impact of currency translation effects, PBT increased by 57%, benefiting from higher revenues and lower impairment charges. As a result, annualised ROE improved to 24.7% versus 20.5% in the prior year.

Net revenue of $282 million increased by 6% or 16% at constant currency. Net interest income increased by 12% at constant currency, driven by modest margin expansion following the Central Bank rate hikes. Non-interest revenue increased 22% at constant currency, driven primarily by cash management, card, and credit-related fees and commissions, thanks to significantly higher client activity.

Operating expenses of $143 million decreased by 3% but increased by 7% at constant currency, mainly driven by the overall increase in prices of goods and services. However, the cost-to-income ratio improved to 50.7% on higher revenues compared to 55.1% in the prior year.

Net impairment charges on loans were $16 million compared with $33 million in the prior year. The current period's lower impairment charges reflected an increase in loan recoveries and the release of previous impairment charges partly driven by a decrease in NPLs.

Nigeria

Nigeria delivered a profit before tax of $18 million for the first half of 2022, increasing by 74%. Excluding the net impact of currency translation effects, PBT increased by 78%. As a result, annualised ROE for the period was 4.7%.

Net revenue of $118 million increased 11% or 14% at constant currency. Net interest income increased by 54% at constant currency to $69 million, benefiting from NIM expansion, improved pricing of earning assets, and a modest increase in the loan portfolio, partially offset by an increase in funding costs, partly due to protracted excess CRR debits from the CBN. Non-interest revenue, on the other hand, fell 17% at constant currency as systemic FX illiquidity and higher rates negatively impacted our trade business—additionally, the net impact on non-interest revenue of CBN's directive on fees on electronic banking operations.

Operating expenses of $96 million increased by 10% or by 13% at constant currency, primarily driven by inflationary pressures, higher energy costs (for example, diesel costs rose 400% in the period), and statutory charges, such as AMCON charges and deposit insurance costs. The cost-to-income ratio was flat at 81.1%.

Net impairment charges on loans were $4 million compared to $7 million in the prior-year period, mainly due to lower gross impairment charges in the current period.

Anglophone West Africa (AWA)

AWA delivered a profit before tax of $130 million for the first six months of 2022, increasing by 8% or $9 million. Results were adversely impacted by the YTD depreciation of the Ghana cedi versus the US dollar by approximately 17%. Excluding the adverse impact of the currency translation, PBT increased by 17%. Annualised ROE for the period was 28.3%.

Net revenue was $268 million, increasing by 8% or 17% at constant currency. Net interest income increased by 16% at constant currency to $172 million, driven by volume growth and a modest increase in NIMs from a higher rate environment. Non-interest revenue was $96 million, up 19% at constant currency, due to significantly higher card spend, deposit balances and cash management.

Operating expenses were $121 million, increasing by 15% or 26% at constant currency. The increase in expenses was broad-based, across staff-related costs and inflation-driven discretionary expenditure. As a result, the cost-to-income ratio deteriorated marginally to 45.0% compared to 42.3% in the prior year.

Net impairment charges on loans were $17 million compared with $22 million in the prior-year period. The higher impairment charges in the period reflected a decrease in loan recoveries compared to the prior-year period.

Central, Eastern and Southern African Region (CESA)

CESA delivered a profit before tax of $107 million for the first half of 2022, an increase of 37%. However, the region's financial results were adversely impacted by mainly the depreciation of the currencies of Zimbabwe (70.3%), Malawi (20.7%), and the CFA franc (8.3%) against the US dollar. Also impacting the results was the negative impact of hyperinflation in Zimbabwe and South Sudan.

Net revenue was $281 million, increasing by 20% or 38% at constant currency. Net interest income increased by 21% at constant currency to $138 million, driven by higher interest income on loans and investment securities supported by an expansion in net interest spreads and NIM. Non-interest revenue increased by 59% at constant currency to $143 million, partly driven by fees generated on episodic deals in some of our markets related to the investment banking deals and higher levels of letters of credit issuances.

Operating expenses of $134 million were up 9% or 19% at constant currency, with savings in staff costs offset by inflation-driven expenditure and investments in building capacity. The cost-to-income ratio improved to 47.7% compared with 52.7% because of the significantly higher revenue growth compared with operating expenses in the period.

Net impairment charges on loans were $14 million compared with $7 million in the prior-year period. The comparable lower net impairment charges for the period were due to lower gross impairment charges and a modest increase in loan recoveries in the current period compared to the prior-year period.
